

Hanna MÜLLER,

born in Stuttgart (Germany), Hanna joined the Federal Ministry of the Interior, Building and Community in January 2019. She is Head of the Division “Political Systems; Hybrid Threats”. Since June 2019, the division has taken over the interdepartmental lead for the topic of "hybrid threats" for the German Federal Government. Prior to her work at the Federal Ministry, she worked at the Federation of German Industries (BDI), where she was responsible for the China-related work within BDI and the Asia-Pacific Committee of German Business (APA). 2016 she established the first BDI office in China/Beijing and acted as Chief Representative.

She holds a M.A. in Politics of East Asia and a B.A. in Economics and Politics of East Asia from the Ruhr-Universität Bochum.

Contact details:

Hanna Katharina Mueller

Federal Ministry of the Interior, Building and Community

Head of Division G II 2

Political Systems; Hybrid threats

Alt-Moabit 140; 10557 Berlin

Tel: 030 18 681 10851

Mail: HannaKatharina.Mueller@bmi.bund.de