

Scholarships

The European Study Center (ESC) is housed in a 250-year-old French castle, the Château de Pourtalès (pictured above). Located in the Robertsau neighborhood of Strasbourg, the ESC is surrounded by a beautiful park and has comfortable student rooms, classrooms, free internet access, a computer lab, a library, a laundry room, a breakfast room, a student kitchen, a lounge, and recreational facilities are located on-site.

Shared housing at either the ESC - Château de Pourtalès, residence halls, or with a host family

Student support services and health and safety assistance provided by a caring, on-site team

Enjoy a delicious French breakfast every morning at the Château and experience French cuisine during student events, holiday parties, group meals, and more

Commute to classes or explore the surrounding area on foot or by bike, bus, tram, or train

Discover the rest of France and Europe during weekends and semester breaks

ESC partners with the non-profit CEPA Foundation to provide a variety of grants, scholarships, and awards to students who qualify as well as to support a variety of charitable projects and initiatives. Visit the website for details. cepa-foundation.org/scholarships

Program Dates:

- Fall early Sept. to late Dec.
- Spring early Jan. to late April/mid May
- Summer late May to early July

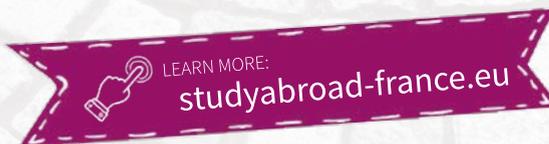

Ready to apply or have questions?

We're here to help. Connect with us in Europe or visit your academic and/or study abroad advisor on campus.

Current program dates, fees, course options, credit transfer, and eligibility requirements can be found on our website.

EUROPEAN STUDY CENTER
Château de Pourtalès, 161, rue Mélanie
67000 Strasbourg, France
Phone: +33 (0) 3 68 33 41 52

info@studyabroad-france.eu

Strasbourg

FRANCE

CREDITS Images used under license from Shutterstock.com, iStockphoto.com, and the European Study Centers

FALL / SPRING / SUMMER

studyabroad-france.eu

About the Program

This program offers a well-supported full semester European study abroad experience for students of any major with interests in European politics and affairs, cross-cultural studies, and/or international business/management.

Partner Institution - University of Strasbourg

Depending on your academic focus and track, you will attend courses at:

Institut d'Études Politiques (IEP) also called Sciences Po, is dedicated to providing top-level multidisciplinary education and is particularly renowned for its expertise in European studies.

EM Strasbourg Business School (EM) is one of the top 15 business schools in France and maintains the prestigious AACSB International Business Accreditation.

Semester highlights: 3-day trip to Brussels, Belgium and 1-day excursions to Frankfurt and Heidelberg, Germany

Co-curricular and course-related excursions: visit EU institutions, companies, castles, cultural organizations, museums, etc.

Strasbourg: The Capital of Europe

Strasbourg is a diverse, modern and multicultural city with centuries of history and a fascinating place for students to study abroad. As one of Europe's capital cities, it is an important center for politics, culture, business, government, and education.

As the formal seat of the European Parliament, Council of Europe and Court of Human Rights, this is the ideal location for students studying political science and international relations.

Co-curricular visits to historical, cultural, economic, and European sites in France and Germany are integral to the semester program, including an extended trip to Brussels, Belgium.

Fields of Study

Fall and Spring Semesters: Economics, EU Studies, European Politics, French Culture and Language, Global Leadership, Intercultural Communication, International Business and Relations, Political Science

Summer: Global Leadership, Intercultural Communication, full-day leadership seminar

U.S. semester credit:

Semester: up to 15 credits / Summer: 6 credits

U.S. transcripts are provided by the ESC School of Record. Visit the website for details.

Attend classes: at ESC and University of Strasbourg

Course instruction: English (Intensive French language courses are available upon request)

Class sizes: Small, typically 20 or fewer students

"The cultural excursions and professional visits brought the entire study abroad experience to a higher level for me. I was able to visit all the important EU institutions that I learned about in my courses."

Kristy P., ESC student from Florida